

James Britton

First in Computer Science

from Brunel University

britton.app

Roles and responsibilities undertaken include

- Development lead on projects
- Full stack development; including mobile app, local and cloud infrastructure
- Liaised with partners e.g. Samsung to provide complete software solutions tailored to client requirements
- Participated in both client and partner meetings and discussions to ascertain project requirements
- Developed Android solutions from initial concept to delivery
- Helped design UI and UX based on customer requirements and feedback
- Conducted product research, including interviews and questionnaires on multiple internal projects
- Completed multiple multidisciplinary product teams investigating product feature and improvements

EYN - Head of Mobile

10/17 - Present

- Responsible for designing, engineering and maintaining front end services. Includes Android app, Web application and Restful API services
- Facilitated team meetings and implemented agile principles to improve team efficiency and organisation
- Responsible for recruitment interviews for other development roles
- Implemented services in both Google Cloud and Amazon AWS
- Developed React Web application as a greenfield project, based on continued client feedback

Tictrac - Lead Android Developer

05/16 - 10/17

- Provided leadership to a team of engineers on the multi client application
- Carried out user research, including face to face customer interviews, prototyping, questionnaires and calls
- Travelled to Singapore for a week's integration and implementation with technical and business client representatives
- Conducted reviews for team members; including review debriefs
- Delivered four client customised applications

Events

MWC Barcelona - Presented at Samsung Partner Event - 2-5 March 2015

Samsung Developer

Conference - Part of panel including Q/A session - 11-13 November 2014

Samsung Business

Discovery Day - June 2014

Awards

Merck Healthcare

Innovation Prize

2013 at Made in Brunel
Awarded for the work I had done on my dissertation - Mobile Patient Records System (March 2013)

Brunel University Club of the Year Award

Whilst President of the Climbing Society, we were awarded Club of the Year. Which is awarded to the club that provides the best service to its members and the Students Union as a whole.

Fanatix - Android Engineer

01/16 – 05/16

- Sole developer on all Android applications
- Complete design and architecture update of the main Android application with a minimal viable product within a short delivery time
- Worked closely with our designer when re-developing the UX and design throughout the development and testing process

Mezzoglobal - R&D Android Engineer

02/14 – 12/15

- Lead developer on Android customer projects
- Full stack development; including mobile application, local and cloud implemented servers
- Participated in both client and partner meetings/discussions to ascertain project requirements
- Developed technical solutions based on customer requirements
- Developed full Android solutions from conception to delivery
- Continued customer feedback and relations with regards to project progress and support

JDA - Consultant Software Engineer

09/13 – 02/14

- Worked on the Dispatcher Warehouse Management Software
- Part of the Services team responsible for engineering product customisations
- Tasked with taking Customer requirements and delivering software solutions to deadlines
- Created design and test documentation for customisations
- Worked with both the Customisation and Standard development teams

Interests Include

- Triathlons
- Rock Climbing
- Scuba Diving
- Motorbikes
- Travelling

Skill Set

Languages:

- Java
- Kotlin
- Javascript
- Python

Android Specific:

- Square Libraries
- RxAndroid
- Support libraries
- Material Design
- Android Wear
- Android Things

Tools:

- Android Studio
- Microsoft Code
- Git
- Google Cloud Platform
- Firebase
- AWS

General:

- Research Interviews
- Agile Methodologies
- Multidisciplinary Teams
- Jira
- Sketch